Dear Mr. Bryan Wilson,

Rescribe provided translation services for the document, 1.00298, Lace Up Ankle with Tibia Strap and Lace Up Ankle with Stays, for Breg, Incorporated in San Diego, California into French, Italian, German and Spanish.

Rescribe currently translates Instructions for Use (IFUs) for Breg, Incorporated in the following languages: French, Italian, German and Spanish. We have been providing this service since 1999. All translation work is translated by a professional translator, fluent in the target language, with expertise in the subject matter. It is then edited by an independent professional translator, fluent in the target language, with expertise in the subject matter. Third, all translations are proofread in-house. We then input the final translations into the layout. The final step is our proofreading the text in the layout to make sure that all text has been inputted correctly. This detailed process ensures the highest level of accuracy.

Rescribe has been in business for eight years and was formerly part of Interpreters Unlimited for five years prior.
